

2.08 Accounts

All District accounts shall be managed by the District in accordance with Wisconsin Administrative Code PSC 185 and s. 66.0809, Wis. Stats.

2.09 Disconnection and Refusal of Service

In addition to other reasons and basis for disconnection and refusal of service under Wisconsin law, service may be disconnected or refused for any of the following reasons:

- A. Failure to pay a delinquent account or failure to comply with the terms of a deferred payment agreement (see s. PSC 185.38).
- B. Delinquency in payment for service received by a previous account holder or customer at the premises to be served, if an account is transferred to a new account holder or customer and the previous account holder or customer continues to be an occupant of the dwelling unit to be served.
- C. Failure to pay for an outstanding account balance with the District owing at a previous address and for which there is no agreement or arrangement for payment and it is not in dispute but remains outstanding.
- D. Failure to comply with deposit or guarantee arrangements as specified in s. PSC 185.36 or 185.361.
- E. Diversion of service around the meter.
- F. Refusal or failure to permit authorized District personnel to read the meter at least once every four (4) months where the utility bills are monthly or bimonthly, or at least once every nine (9) months where the utility bills are quarterly or less frequently than quarterly. The 4-or 9-month period begins with the date of the last meter reading.
- G. Refusal or failure to permit authorized District personnel access to the base meter.
- H. Violation of the District's rules pertaining to the use of service in a manner which interferes with the service of others or to the operation of nonstandard equipment, if the customer has first been notified and provided with reasonable opportunity to remedy the situation.
- I. Failure to comply with Wisconsin statutes, commission rules, or commission orders pertaining to District service.
- J. Failure to pay costs or fees incurred by and awarded to the District by a court of law, for pursuit of collection of bills, or failure to pay extraordinary collection charges as allowed and specified in the District's tariffs filed with the commission.
- K. Failure to comply with the District's rules or if the customer uses a device that unreasonably interferes with communications or signal services used for reading meters.
- L. Failure of an applicant for District service to provide adequate verification of identity and residency, as provided in sub. (5) (a).
- M. Failure of an applicant for District service to provide the information set forth in ss. PSC 185.33 (18) (a), (b) and (c).

2.10 Well Protection

Dumpsters or other garbage containers must be placed on an impervious pad, separated from any of the District's wells by at least one hundred (100) feet.
